N3F Round Robin

When you receive this, read the enclosed letters, remove your previous letter, write a new one, and put it behind the others. Contributions should be no more than two sheets of paper, typed or legibly handwritten. Make all address changes on this sheet. Let your RM know when you mail this RR. A postcard or note is greatly appreciated. It is helpful if you also keep a record of when you mail RR's to the next person in case your RM needs to find it.

Please send this packet on to the next person on the route in 10 days at the most. If you are too busy to contribute in this time period, just send it on with only a note of explanation. If you have this RR "resting" at your place, due to life's little twists and turns, please don't be embarrassed! Just let your RM know, so she/he will not re-start it, thinking it is lost. That causes great confusion and costly double packets of letters. Placing enough postage on the RR's is also very important. Some Post Offices will not deliver mail that does not have enough postage. To be safe, if a RR has 5 pages or more, you should use a ~~45~~ cent stamp and a ~~35~~ cent stamp (at least until the postage goes up).

Thanks for your help in keeping the RR's rounding fast and fun!!

#2 world wide Folklore

DEAR Fern:

Saturday, July
The 4th
2020

Well, I said I would Restart at Least Two of These Very Late RR's - of which almost all of the 40 or so I had going are now missing or Dead! The last book I Read was: WARRIORS
The Untold Stories, containing Three Novellts about Erin Hunter's Cat Characters -- These are very well Done if you like Fiction about Cats - a Subject that not all writers can write well... Paul Gallico was very Good at it! and Tad Williams among our Modern Writers... also Deborah Grabien, who wrote: DARK's Tale, and Gwen Cooper who wrote: Homer's Odyssey are very Good too!

Favorite writers are Jack Chalker (especially the Wellworld Series books!) and Marion Zimmer Bradley, for her Darkover Series. I was a Member of Darkover Fandom and I got their Zines from the West Coast...

also liked Wilson (Bob) Tucker, Bob Asprin, and a number of women writers such as LeGuin, and Tiptree... wonderful books! Since my husband, Charlie has been in the Hospital for the past 2 months or more I haven't gotten much done.. but Please try to get these missives sent on and rounding... that's what it's all about! I'm over

inspired to try to get things going again when I got a letter from a NEO name of Ray Nelson who wrote me that he was interested in Round Robins! his address if you would be interested is: 333 Ramona Ave, EL CERRITO, CA, 94530-3739.

Happy Writing... Patsy
